Our approach is rooted in the belief that entrepreneurship and economic self-reliance are key drivers of social transformation. To this end, we offer a range of programs designed to equip women and children with essential skills, vocational training, and the resources necessary to foster entrepreneurship. ## PURASKAR 2024

India's rapid digitization has brought transformative changes, connecting over 700 million people online. However, the digital divide remains a pressing challenge, with significant gaps in internet access and technology use between urban and rural areas and across socio-economic groups.

Digital

& Divide

Urban areas, especially major cities, have extensive internet access, high-speed broadband, and advanced digital devices, enabling full participation in the digital economy, online education, and healthcare. In contrast, rural regions face limited connectivity, inadequate infrastructure, and costly devices, restricting opportunities for education, healthcare, and economic progress. This persistent digital divide reinforces poverty and social exclusion, highlighting the critical need for equitable access to technology and internet infrastructure to bridge the gap and promote inclusive growth and social empowerment across all communities.

Cybersecurity in India

The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed the digital divide, leaving those without reliable internet or devices behind, particularly in rural areas. Students struggled with online education, and small businesses faced financial losses. As India becomes more digitally connected, cybersecurity threats like data breaches, ransomware, and phishing attacks have increased, endangering individuals, businesses, and national security.

India has faced major cyberattacks, compromising government, financial, and healthcare systems, causing financial losses, identity theft, and public distrust.
